HERE WE GO AGAIN!

The reruns are back and with them the "60 Minutes" segment on Gallaudet. The program will be shown this Sunday, May 8, 1977 on local channel 9 at 7:00 p.m. Be sure to tell all your friends to be on the look-out once again for traces of "you"!!

WORKSHOP ON DEAF RIGHTS

The Council for the Deaf of D.C. is sponsoring a workshop on "The Rights of the Deaf in the Use of Public and Private Agencies." The workshop will be held on Thursday, May 5, 1977 in the new dining hall.

All interested persons working in the area of human services are invited to attend. An emphasis will be placed on the rights of deaf persons to receive public services and public employees are urged to attend.

Don Pettingill of the White House Conference on Handicapped Individuals will be the Keynote Speaker.

CHILDREN'S SUMMER RECREATION PROGRAM

The Gallaudet Summer recreation program under the direction of Dorothy Hamberg is once again being offered for your children ranging in age from five to twelve. The program offers special instruction in swimming, gymnastics, games, sign language, and arts and crafts. Scheduled during this program are several field trips and an overnight camping trip. Applications should be returned as soon as possible to Dorothy Hamberg in the P.E. Dept.

In addition to this recreation program Continuing Education will be operating a Day Care Center on campus from June 13 to August 19. Children in the Day Center will be urged to attend the recreation program and free pick up and delivery to the program will be provided by the Center.

AUDIOLOGY COLLOQUIUM PLANNED

The Department of Audiology and Speech and the Sensory Communication Research Laboratory will be sponsoring an audiology colloquium on Friday, May 27 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Featured in this colloquium will be Mr. Bertril Johansson, a research engineer who has made many contributions to the field of audiology.

For more information regarding this colloquium contact Daniel Bode in the Department of Audiology and Speech.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Congratulations are in order for the new "doctor" in the Department of Counseling. Dr. Bill McCrone successfully defended his dissertation on April 25, 1977 at the University of Arizona.

--Sy DuBow presented a workshop to the Connecticut Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf at the University of Connecticut Law School on April 30.

--The Hughes Memorial Theatre won three first prizes in the state wide one-act play tournament. "Save me a Place at Forest Lawn" won Best Play and will be competing in New Jersey. Debbie Sonnenstrahl won Best All-Around performer and Ruth Ann Sussman won the Best Actress. Congratulations to all of you!

--Board member Willard H. Duetting will be retiring as director of the Xerox International Center for Training and Management Development in Leesburg, Va. Mr. Duetting and his wife will be relocating to Clover, South Carolina.

--Clarence Williams will be presenting his paper, "Efforts toward the development of unbiased selection and assessment instruments," at the Third International Symposium on Educational Testing, at the University of Leyden, The Netherlands, in June, 1977.
